

Statutes

of Sunset Riders RC

located in Rümlang

Paragraph 1 – Name and domicile

Under the name

Sunset Riders RC

with registered domicile at c/o Daniel Wanner, Tempelhofstrasse 3B, 8153 Rümlang, an association in accordance with Art. 60 ff. of the Swiss Civil Code.

Paragraph 2 – Purpose

The purpose of the association is:

1. Organizing motorcycle tours and journeys for its members.
2. Organizing and attending internal and external events.

Paragraph 3 – Resources

The resources of the association to fulfill its purpose are comprised by:

1. Membership fees.
2. Voluntary contributions (sponsorships, donations, inheritances).
3. Earnings from association's activities, such as the staging of events, training, motorcycle trips and such as sales of beverages and food.

Paragraph 4 – Membership

1. Natural persons, partnerships and legal entities may become members of the association.
2. Application for membership shall be in writing and submitted to the board of directors directly.
3. The board has absolute discretion when deciding about the final admission of a member.

Paragraph 5 – Resignation and exclusion

1. A member may resign from the association in writing by giving a notice to the president of the board of directors 3 months in advance.
2. The board of directors may expel a member who acts contrary to the interests and/or purpose of the association. An expulsion shall be agreed by the majority of the board of directors.
3. An appeal by the member against an exclusion shall be made within 30 days after the written notification of the decision.
4. The appeal will be taken into consideration at the next general assembly. The final decision (i.e. reintegration or expulsion confirmation) shall be agreed by the majority of the general assembly.

Paragraph 6 – Bodies

1. The bodies of the association are:
 - a. The general assembly

- b. The board of directors
- c. The auditors

Paragraph 7 – The general assembly

1. The general assembly is the supreme body of the association. The assembly is responsible in particular for the election and dismissal of the President. It is comprised by all regular members of the association and its responsibilities include:
 - a. Election of the President;
 - b. Election of the auditors;
 - c. Approval of the associations accounts;
 - d. Discharge of the board of directors;
 - e. Determination of the amount of membership fees to be paid by each regular member.
 - f. Amendment and adoption of the statutes;
 - g. Appeals on member exclusions by the board of directors;
 - h. Dissolution of the association;
 - i. Matters reserved for the general assembly by law or by the statutes or submitted by the board of directors.

Paragraph 8 – Convening of the general assembly

1. The general assembly of the association shall be convened by the President upon resolution of the board. It must also be convened if one fifth of the members so request in writing.
2. The ordinary general meeting of the association shall be held once a year, at the latest six months after the end of each association's year.
3. Notice of ordinary meetings of the association shall be given at least 30 days before the meeting by publication on the association's website or by email. Notice of extraordinary meetings shall be given at least 10 days before the meeting by publication on the association's website or by email. Notice of meetings shall include the meeting's agenda.

Paragraph 9 – Voting rights and decision-making

1. Each regular member shall have one vote at the general assembly of the association. The general assembly of the association shall pass resolutions and carry out elections by a majority of one vote more than half of the members present, unless the law provides otherwise.
2. In the event of a tie, the president of the association has casting vote.
3. Voting rights are suspended as long as a regular member is not up-to-date in the payment of his/her membership fees.

Paragraph 10 – The board of directors

1. The board of directors shall consist of at least two members and it is responsible in particular for fulfilling the purpose of the association in accordance with its statutes, the directions given by the general assembly of the association and the law.
2. It shall constitute itself, except for the president, who shall be elected by the general assembly of the association.
3. The competence of the board of directors shall include in particular:
 - a. Day-to-day operations of the association;

- b. Preparation of the general assembly;
- c. Execution of the resolutions of the general assembly;
- d. Decisions on the admission and possible exclusion of members of the association;
- e. Dealing with suggestions, applications and complaints from members of the association;
- f. Preparation of the budget and annual accounts;
- g. Management of the association's assets;
- h. In addition, it shall have all other powers not expressly reserved to another organ of the association by law or by its statutes.

Paragraph 11 – Representation and signatory authority

1. The president represents the association publicly. The president, the vice president and the treasurer have joint signature authority.

Paragraph 12 – Audit of accounts

1. The general assembly of the association shall elect one or two individuals as auditors (who may be simultaneously board members) for a period of one year. The audit may also be entrusted to a legal entity (e.g. trust company, etc.).
2. The accounts of the association shall be closed annually.
3. The auditors are obliged to audit the annual accounts of the association and to report to the ordinary general assembly of the association on the results of their audit.

Paragraph 13 – Liability

1. The obligations of the association may be sought on its assets only. Any financial responsibility or liability of any kind (including personal liability) of its members and the board of directors is expressly excluded, except for membership fees.

Paragraph 14 – Dissolution and liquidation

1. The dissolution of the association requires a three-fourths majority of the regular members of the association present at a validly convened general assembly.
2. If the dissolution is decided, the liquidation shall be carried out by the board of directors, unless the general assembly of the association appoints a special liquidator(s).
3. The net assets remaining after payment of all debts, other charges and settlement of other obligations shall be allocated to a purpose similar to the association's objective, selected by resolution of the general assembly.

Paragraph 15 – Entry into force

These statutes were adopted at the third ordinary general assembly of the association, held on November 16, 2025, and entered into force on that date.

Signature, President

Name: Daniel Wanner Signature: 76.11.25, Daniel Wanner